

In July, the Pastor Search Committee conducted a first round of virtual interviews, via Zoom, with candidates for LPC's open Pastor position. What a blessing it has been to get a glimpse into the variety of gifted people God has raised up to serve in ministry throughout the United States. Our task is to seek the mind of Christ, in the power of the Holy Spirit, and to discern whom God has called to be LPC's next Pastor. At the same time, candidates for the position are seeking to recognize a similar call on their own lives. As a result, our interviews are purposely a two-way process; the committee and the candidates are both interviewing each other. In the coming weeks, we plan to conduct a second round of interviews with select candidates.

As the committee seeks to follow God's lead and timing through this process, we continue to learn that His process is not always linear and His timing does not operate on our schedule. These realities cause us to rely less on our own plans and schemes and more on patient prayer for His wisdom. Please continue to pray for us as we seek His will.
