

In the past month, the focus of the Pastor Search Committee (PSC) has shifted from preparation for the search to active participation in the search process. As cover letters, resumes and Personal Information Forms (PIFs) are received from candidates, the committee is prayerfully reading, evaluating, and discussing how each candidate may (or may not) possess the skills, characteristics, experience, and potential to be a fit for LPC's next pastor. As we do so, the reality and enormity of our task has become evident. Our growing sense of responsibility to God, the session, the congregation, the local community, and the next generation of LPC members is sobering and humbling. We are praying that our biases and preferences will be replaced by the unity of the Spirit as we seek to discern whom Christ has called to be LPC's next pastor. Please continue praying with us and for us.
